JANUARY 2024

PASTOR'S PONDERINGS

Are you feeling joyful about heading into a new year? I hope so but take a moment to consider where your heart is. If you are looking forward to following where God leads, you will feel enthusiasm, courage, and trust. That takes an undivided heart. Unless you are committed to God's path, it will be impossible to follow Him with joy into the unknown.

Today we follow Jesus by hearing and heeding His Holy Spirit. In fact, there is no better way to get personal guidance. As Jesus did for His disciples, the Spirit guides us each step of the way and teaches us the truths of God. But His work goes beyond that. The Holy Spirit transforms us from the inside out and enables us to serve and obey the Lord. He helps us discover God's will for our life and shows how to walk in His path. All we have to do is follow.

Let God's words fill you with confidence and hope for the coming year: "Teach me Your way, Lord; I will walk in Your truth; unite my heart to fear Your name. I will give thanks to You, Lord my God, with all my heart, and I will glorify Your name forever" (Psalm 86:11-12). God bless you as you begin 2024.

Community Concerns & Missions Committee

End of Year Report—2023

Committee Members: Kara Davis and Claire Grant, Co-chairs, Eric Davis, Steve Grant, Penny Endsley, Sofia Yarbrough, Lou Sutton, Sharon Chasey, Sharon Harding, Kay Moore, Pam Douglas, Jolene Taylor, Beth Van Orden and The Rev. Woody Meredith.

The Community Concerns and Missions Committee had a very busy and productive year. Several organizations in the Henderson County community and beyond are helped financially through funds distributed by the Programs, Missions and Benevolence Committee. These include: Labor of Love, Mo-Ranch, Food Pantry, The Ark, CASA, Family Peace Project, Camp Gilmont, Skiin with the Galilean, Lila Lane Outreach, The Farm, Rainbow Room, Rebecca Project, Love in Action, Matthew 2535, Feeding Kids Right, FPC Mothers' Day Out.

We also have several members who are involved in local ministries. Here is a recap of 2023:

Agape Quilt Ministry: This ministry, under the leadership of Sofia Yarbrough, produces 18-20 quilts per month for the homeless community of Henderson County. Other quilters include: Sharon Harding, Steve Yarbrough, Ken Lemmon, Cathie Scarborough, Judy Willis, Barbara Kimes, Sally Ayres, and Jan Richardson.

The Ark: Jolene Taylor is our Ark liaison. She and other volunteers (Lou Sutton, Jan Richardson, Sally Ayres) prepared and served meals for TVCC students in July and November.

Beat the Heat: This past May, 29 box fans were purchased by church members and distributed to people in the community to help combat the summer heat.

Christmas Benevolence Program: Once again, Penny Endsley headed up this program. Upon receiving funds from the Cain Foundation, Penny sent letters to area schools and received names of people in need. Our church members shopped for 33 families (which consisted of 103 children) at Walmart, and gave each family a Brookshires gift card and a family bible. We also provided for residents at four nursing homes and bought 18 pair of shoes for the homeless. Their names were provided by Love in Action.

Food Pantry: Several of our members volunteer at the Food Pantry. They are: Carol McNatt, Mamie Downing, Kim Scott, Kay Moore, Donna Ward, Linda Horton, Penny Endsley, Beth Youngblood, Emily Carlson, Joan Meadows, Claire Grant, Pam Douglas, Jo Ann Johnson, Barbara and Randy Kimes. The Food Pantry had major renovations done this summer, and our church, through the PM&B funds, donated $5,000 to help cover the costs.

Fuel Fund: The Fuel Fund, which is a non-budgeted item and depends solely on donations, provided assistance to more than 85 families in the Henderson County area. The HELP Center distributes the $6,000 given annually by our church.

Love in Action: Our church provides a meal to approximately 30 people on the last Friday of every month. Eric and Kara Davis have been preparing the meal, and the ingredients are provided by several members of our congregation.

Missionary Partners: Our missionary partners in Korea, Kurt Esslinger and Hyeyoung Lee, continue to be supported financially by our church. Steve Grant is our liaison with them and keeps us up to date on their activities. Our church gave them $650 for their ministry this year.

Presbyterian Disaster Relief: Our church sent $500 to Hawaii after the devastating fires in Maui. Additional funds were provided by individual church members.

Presbyterian Children's Homes and Services (PCHAS): Claire Grant is our liaison to PCHAS. Our church participated in two projects. Several members provided school supplies for ten middle school and high school students in late summer, and 19 family baskets were filled in December to be distributed to families under the PCHAS umbrella. Diane Pennington, the PCHAS Developmental Officer, came to speak to our members at Family Night Supper in September.

Rebecca Project (821 Ministries): A group of volunteers meets in our Fellowship Hall every Saturday morning to assemble and distribute meals to shut-ins on the weekends.

Soup Kitchen: Several church members continue to work tirelessly to provide meals on a takeout basis to people in the Athens community. Volunteers are: Sharon Chasey, Sharon Harding, Mary Hortman, Cathie Scarborough and Gary Espy.

Special Offerings: Lou Sutton heads up our special offerings throughout the year. These offerings are: One Great Hour of Sharing, Pentecost Offering, Peace and Global Witness Offering and the Christmas Joy Offering. Thanks to the generous giving of our members, our congregation is "Four For Four".

Columbarium News

For many centuries, cemeteries were commonly found in churchyards, allowing churches to minister to the spiritual needs of their members. But there is a modern alternative which churches are offering their members: the Columbarium.

A Columbarium is a collection of niches designed to house urns inscribed with the person's names and dates of birth and death.

The principal benefit a Columbarium affords church members and their families is the opportunity to select their final resting place in the shadow of the church where their loved ones can visit and meditate at any time.

The Columbarium is part of First Presbyterian Church and functions under the authority of the Session.

A Columbarium Committee oversees operation of the Columbarium.

If you wish to discuss the purchase of a niche within the Columbarium, please contact the church office.

The Ferris family wishes to express their appreciation for your love and kindness shown during the passing of Kenneth.

Love, Roberta Ferris

IN THE SPOTLIGHT...

2023 CHRISTMAS BENEVOLENCE PROGRAM

Thank you to everyone who volunteered this year. Your love and commitment helped to bless 32 families (107 children) to have a very Merry Christmas. Also, we helped with 20 pairs of shoes for Love In Action and 4 nursing home residents.

We also want to thank the Cain Foundation. Without their grant, all this would not have been possible.

Thank you once again for all your help!

Blessings,

Penny Endsley.
