The Communique: September 2026

We are a warm, caring, nurturing, and supportive Church family of deeply committed disciples who are excited about sharing the Good News of the Gospel of Jesus Christ with the world through numerous avenues of ministry.

We are rich in history, having been founded in 1855, but we continue to be actively seeking God's will in the 21st Century. We continue to rely on God's Spirit as we strive to serve God's people with energy, intelligence, imagination, and love. We would love to have you be a part of this loving and joy-filled family of God.

If you are searching for answers to life's pressing questions, you are welcome here. If you are looking to be a part of a spirit-filled worship experience that can fill you with God's love and power, you are welcome here. If you are seeking a Church home where your individual talents can be shared, you are welcome here.

Please accept my personal invitation to come and experience the love, joy and peace of God that's found at First Presbyterian Church of Athens.

Our doors and hearts are open to you. Welcome! Rev. Woody Meredith

Pastor's Ponderings:

During the summer months I've been studying Paul's writings and reflecting on his words to the churches he founded. In many of his letters to those churches he speaks about contentment, and it started me thinking. What kind of life do you think brings contentment?

You might assume it's one with few problems, good health, financial security, and a loving family. But that was not Paul's experience. His life was filled with dangers, rejection, personal attacks, beatings, and imprisonment, yet he claimed to have learned the secret of being content in every circumstance. The source of his contentedness was obviously not his situation, and that can be true for you as well.

Contentment is hard to find and even harder to keep. There's always something newer and better to acquire or a more appealing relationship to pursue. This month, when you feel unsatisfied, remember all you have in Christ and respond according to these truths rather than your feelings. See you on Sunday.

Pastor Woody

Mission Statement:

A family of disciples touched by God's grace, called to share Christ through worship, ministry, and outreach.

We strive to live out our Mission Statement by providing worship and Christian Education experiences that allow for personal spiritual growth. As equipped disciples we then go into the world to model Christ's love to others.

Would you like to have the opportunity to become a part of FPC-Athens worship experience?

Contact the church office about Liturgist and Greeter opportunities.

Church Library:

Do you need a new book to lose yourself in or maybe revisit one you haven't read in a long while? Then, we want to invite you to visit the church library and take one home.

The library is open Monday-Friday from 8:00am to 2:00pm and on Sunday from 8:30am to Noon.

Easy book check-out instructions are posted.

We welcome suggestions for new books, videos or CD's to order, and book donations in honor or in memory of someone special.

For questions or help, contact Kim Scott (kscott7938@aol.com).

The library is located in the church office area, past the front desk, 2nd door on the right.

Columbarium News:

For many centuries, cemeteries were commonly found in church yards, allowing churches to minister to the spiritual needs of the members. But there is a modern alternative which churches are offering their members: the Columbarium.

A Columbarium is a collection of niches designed to house urns inscribed with the person's names and dates of birth and death.

The principal benefit a Columbarium affords church members and their families is the opportunity to select their final resting place in the shadow of the church where their loved ones can visit and meditate at any time.

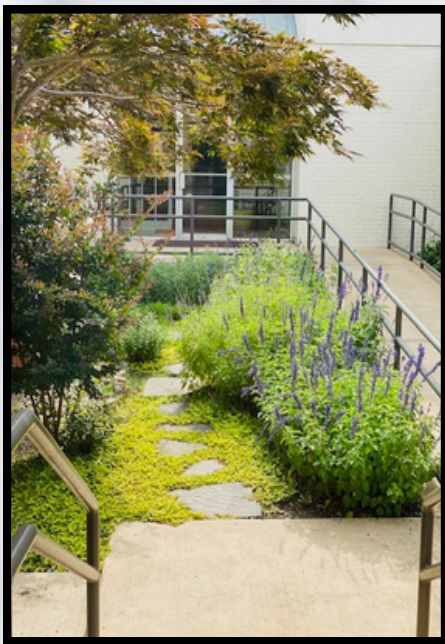

The Columbarium is part of First Presbyterian Church and functions under the authority of the Session.

A Columbarium Committee oversees operation of the Columbarium.

If you wish to discuss the purchase of a niche within the Columbarium, please contact the church office.

Sherry Smith Prayer Garden:

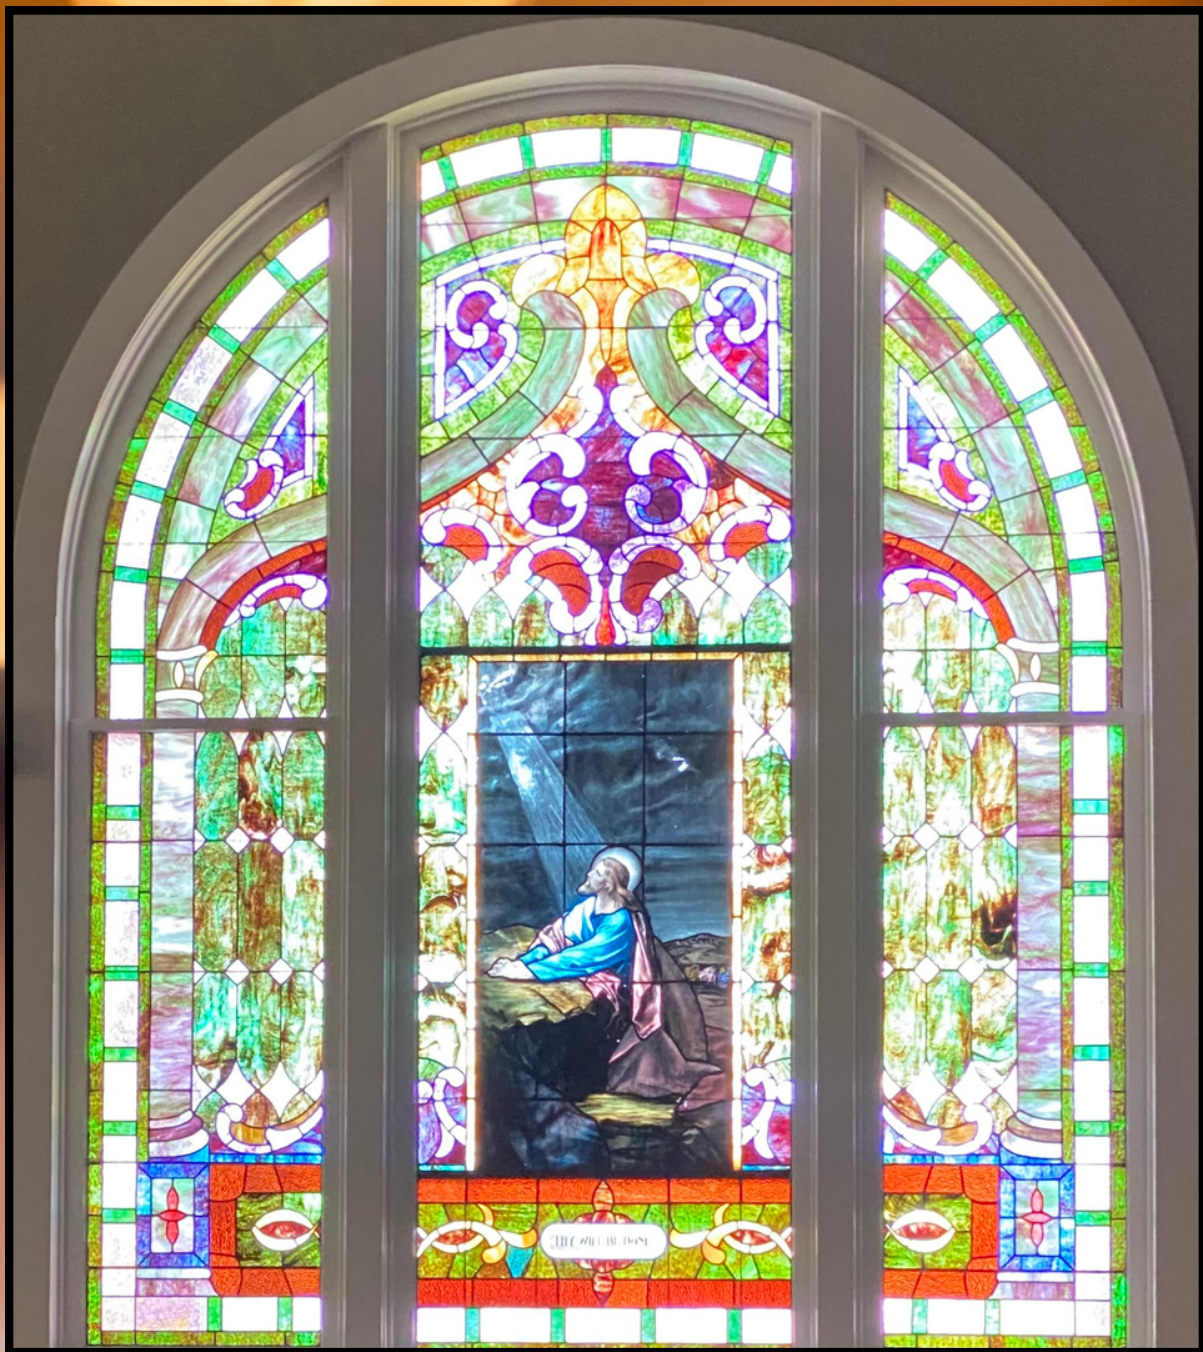

Our church prayer garden (shared in the same space as the columbarium) is a peaceful sanctuary surrounded by blooming flowers and shaded trees.

Whether seeking comfort, expressing gratitude, or simply enjoying the scenery, visitors & members alike feel embraced by the presence of God.

It is a cherished corner of the church, reminding all who enter of the beauty of faith and the power of prayer.

Contact the church office if you are interested in lending a hand in maintaining the prayer garden.

IMPORTANT MESSAGE:

Starting September 6th, we're returning to our regular worship hours.
Please contact the church office with any questions.

Kurt Esslinger and Hyeyoung Lee

Serving Christ together in South Korea

Kurt and Hyeyoung will mentor Presbyterian Young Adult Volunteers (YAVs) who spend one year living and serving in Korea. Their goal is to help the YAVs have a clear sense of their call to promote social justice, reconciliation, and evangelism as people of faith. As they guide young adults to reflect on their experience, Kurt and Hyeyoung will seek to prepare them to return to the United States to lead the church in working for God's shalom throughout the global community. They will also work to enhance the fruitful relationship between the ministry of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and Korean church communities. Kurt and Hyeyoung say their call to this work stems in part from their relationship with each other, which they believe reflects the value of working together across different cultures.

CHRISTMAS BENEVOLENCE PROJECT

- PROVIDES LOW-INCOME FAMILIES FROM LOCAL SCHOOLS WITH CHRISTMAS GIFTS.
 - PROVIDES EACH FAMILY WITH STORY BIBLE.
 - PROVIDES EACH FAMILY WITH A BROOKSHIRE'S GIFT CARD.

Many of you are already aware of how this project affects our community, but for those who are not familiar, here is a brief summary:

Each year letters are sent to local elementary schools, requesting names of families that are in need of assistance at Christmas. Volunteers then contact the family they are assigned, identify the children's needs and then either shop with the parent or shop on the volunteer's own time. Because we have the opportunity to make their Christmas wishes a reality, share in the joy and show them the true meaning of Christmas, through Christmas Benevolence, Christmas blessings are realized for both the volunteer and the family.

Please, prayerfully consider volunteering this year. Sign-up sheets are available in the Fellowship Hall, Church Hallway Ministry Bulletin Board, & the Church Office. We would love for you to be included and to witness the many blessings that are received.

If you have any questions or would like additional information, please contact Terri Budow at 903-677-4018.

Our Special Offering collection will take place on Sunday, October 4th. Please include 'World Communion' on the memo line of your check & simply place your special offering envelope in the offering plate.

Additional material will be available in future bulletins and for pick up.

What does the Lord require of you, but to do justice,

...to love kindness

and to walk humbly with your God.

WORLD COMMUNION OFFERING

September 6th-October 4th

Please give generously—for when we all do a little, it adds up to a lot.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (USA)

“What does the Lord require of you?” “... to do justice and to love kindness and walk humbly with your God.” – Micah 6:8 In the 8th century before Christ, the humble prophet Micah was deeply in touch with the plight of the people. He envisioned a world where everyone would be free to live into the fullness of the life God intended. Yet the society and the culture in Micah’s day did not match his visions of God’s reign — there was no justice, kindness or humble living.

The World Communion Offering, received during A Season of Preparation leading up to World Communion Sunday, is a new way for Presbyterians to “love kindness” expressed in action, often involving mercy, faithfulness and steadfast commitment. Racial justice, gender justice, global witness, and ecumenical and interfaith engagement are the important causes supported by this Offering.

The prophet Micah is clear: Our love of God moves us to faithful action through justice, kindness and humble living. Participating in the Churchwide Special Offerings is one way Presbyterians show their love for God and help all God’s children live into the fullness of Micah’s prophecy.

FAMILY NIGHT SUPPER

Traditional Potluck

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 2026
6:00PM IN THE FELLOWSHIP HALL

SPECIAL PRESENTATION: Kairos Prison Ministry

Please welcome Cynthia Hight to our September 16 Family Night Supper. She will be speaking with us about the Kairos Outside Prison Ministry program.

Invite family, friends and neighbors who may be interested in learning more about this ministry.

Kairos Outside is a Christian-based ministry located in East Texas, offering a weekend retreat designed to support the female loved ones of men and women who are or have been incarcerated. Families of the incarcerated "do time" right along with their loved ones. On a Kairos Outside weekend, in a safe environment with loving people, guests hear talks and participate in activities with women who share their life journeys. Women interact with other women in similar situations and learn to form small support groups to give them strength for their challenges. The program involves music, prayer, fun activities, pampering, and great meals.

All are welcome... No need to RSVP.

A night to enjoy fellowship, fun, and good food!

We invite the congregation to bring a favorite covered dish, salad, or dessert to share. We look forward to seeing you!
